3t MRS. FREDERICKA DELVENTHAL.

A Washington writer says that Senators Logan, Sherman, Harrison, Hawley, Allison and even Edmunds "never go to bed at night without wishing they would wake up in the White House." All of these gentlemen are destined to disappointment. The United States Senate is not the body out of which Presidents are selected. A very large majority of the Senators are too far removed from the people, have too little sympathy with the masses, to ever be called to the chief magistracy. Senator Sherman has, probably, a better chance for the Presidential nomination than any other Republican Senator, but the Blaine men of Ohio will not permit him to go into the national convention with the prestige of the solid vote of the Ohio delegation. The "Ohio crowd," at all events, are not in favor, and when they quarrel, as they generally do, they are hoisted at and styled "temperance howlers who get merry on Roman punch." While John Sherman is presiding with dignity over the Senate and carefully looking about that no one tears down his fences his brother, the general, is having a good time in New York, getting as much fun and good eating out of that town as possible. A Philadelphia Times man, who seems to know what is going on in New York, says: "Chief among the diners-out in New York is that bearded hero who fills so large a space in the public heart, Gen. W. T. Sherman. It is said that he has dining engagements that provide for his presence at various dinners in that city and elsewhere till late in next September. There are a few vacant dates, but they are not likely to stay vacant a long time, for General Sherman never says no to any reputable friend. His next favorite amusement is the theater, and like old Ben Wade of Ohio, he would pawn his best suit to get money enough to go to any such entertainment if it couldn't be had in any other way. One of the chief reasons, in fact, why General Sherman left St. Louis was his desire to live where some good entertainment could always be had. He is as familiar with the stage and its celebrities as the celebrities are themselves, and is never more delighted than when engaged in an interchange of theatrical reminiscences with some of his many theatrical friends." It is safe to wager that "Old Teumseh" is the happiest man of the two celebrated brothers.

A New York Central sleeping car porter says he has been on the road for fifteen years and only two ladies ever offered to pay him for his trouble.

The male residents of Jerusalem, upon arising in the morning, thank God that they were not born women. The women look at them and respond with a hearty amen.

Fish is good brain food, but it does seem a pity, in some cases, to waste so much fish.

It is very unhealthy for a growing boy to smoke tobacco—particularly if his father catches him at it.

The New York Herald runs a fast train to Washington every morning, at an expense of $2,500 per week.

Bad weather can keep people away from an evening prayer-meeting, but it rarely gets the best of a circus.

An enthusiastic Indiana editor wrote: "The battle is now opened." But alas! the composer spelt "battle" with an "o," and his readers say they have expected it all along.

Wee Fanny bit her tongue one day and came in crying bitterly. "What is it?" asked her mother. "Oh, mamma!" she said, "my teeth stepped on my tongue."

The First Keen Twinge.

As the season advances, the pains and aches by which rheumatism makes itself known, are experienced after every exposure. It is not claimed that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a specific for rheumatism—we doubt if there is, or can be, such a remedy. But the thousands benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla, warrant us in urging others who suffer from rheumatism to take it before the first keen twinge.

A clergyman who had a bad habit of adding "ah" to many of his words, spoke last Sunday of many of his congregation who "had been brought up on the Lord's side-ah."—Hartford Sunday Journal.

The Wabash road earned in November $646,384; increase over earnings corresponding period, 1885, $106,400. Since January 1, the earnings of this road were $11,728,796; increase over earnings corresponding eleven months of 1885, $801,142.

"Consumption can be Cured."

Dr. J. S. Coms, Owensville, Ohio, says: "I have given Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites to four patients with better results than seemed possible with any remedy. All were hereditary cases of lung disease, and advanced to that stage when coughs, pain in the chest, frequent breathing, frequent pulse, fever and emaciation. All these cases have increased in weight from 16 to 28 lbs., and are not now needing any medicine." Imo

Rheumatism

We doubt if there is, or can be, a specific remedy for rheumatism; but thousands who have suffered its pains have been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. If you have failed to find relief, try this great remedy.

"I was afflicted with rheumatism twenty years. Previous to 1883 I found no relief, but grew worse, and at one time was almost helpless. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me more good than all the other medicine I ever had." H. T. BALCOM, Shirley Village, Mass.

"I had rheumatism three years, and got no relief till I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has done great things for me. I recommend it to others." LEWIS BURBANK, Biddeford, Me.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is characterized by three peculiarities: 1st, the combination of remedial agents; 2d, the proportion; 3d, the process of securing the active medicinal qualities. The result is a medicine of unusual strength, effecting cures hitherto unknown. Send for book containing additional evidence.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla tones up my system, purifies my blood, sharpens my intellect, and seems to make me over." J. P. THOMPSON, Register of Deeds, Lowell, Mass.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla beats 11 others, and is worth its weight in gold." I. EXAMINGTON, 130 Bank Street, New York City.
